

Dear Friends of the CT Food Association:

As we gear up for the CT legislative session which begins on February 7th, we will be keeping an eye out for proposals that impact retailers and consumers. Be assured we will keep you updated on any developments as the session progresses.

Your CFA staff 😊

FOODBYTES

Pinot noir with your bread and milk? CT supermarkets not giving up on selling wine

People in CT are ‘freaked out’ over groceries while inflation is low. Here’s why.

Constrained by guardrails, legislative session looms

CT towns embrace Big Y after Amazon ditches plans for eagerly awaited Fresh grocery stores

Restaurants vs. grocery stores: Who is winning the share of stomach competition?

Top 5 Strategies for Colorado Liquor Stores in the Age of Grocery Store Wine Sales

Dan Haar: Your cheat sheet — the big CT spending requests stirring fights at the Capitol

Don't forget to sign up for the CT Food Association Annual Meeting, Installation of Officers and Dinner Reception on March 26th at the Farmington Polo Club. This is always a great opportunity to network with colleagues, hear new ideas and share business trends. We hope to see you there!

To register, click here.

CTWINENOW.com

Valentine's Day is coming! Make your sweetheart happy! Wouldn't it be great if you could pick up wine with your flowers, card and candy? Click here to learn more.

The National Grocer's Association Show at the Caesar's Forum Convention Center in Las Vegas this year will be held from March 10-12th. CT Food Association members can take advantage of a 15% discount by using the code: CONNECTICUT15

February 22nd is Supermarket Employee Day

